The meeting was called to order by Chairman Gary Hayzlett at 1:30 p.m. on January 11, 2012, in Room 783 of the Docking State Office Building.

All members were present except Rep. Hildabrand, Excused

Committee staff present:

Scott Wells, Office of the Revisor of Statutes

Daniel Yoza, Office of the Revisor of Statutes

Jill Shelley, Kansas Legislative Research Department

Betty Boaz, Committee Assistant

Conferees appearing before the Committee:

None

Others attending.

See attached list.

Chairman Hayzlett opened the meeting and referenced the Committee folders containing copies of the House Transportation Committee Rules, Information for Conferees and a Transportation Committee Member directory.

The Chairman called for Bill Introductions.

Chairman Hayzlett recognized Representative Peggy Mast. Representative Mast explained two bills she would like to have introduced. One bill concerned fines for seat belt violations. The second bill concerned designation of a portion of Highway 75 as the Floyd H. Robinson Memorial Highway.

Representative Swanson moved introduction of the second bill concerning designation of a portion of Highway 75 as the Floyd H. Robinson Memorial Highway, and Representative Grant seconded the motion. The motion carried.

Representative Montgomery moved introduction of the first bill concerning fines for seat belt violations, seconded by Representative Fawcett. After some discussion a vote was taken and the motion failed.

Patrick Vogelsburg, on behalf of National Solid Waste Management Association, requested introduction of a bill concerning gross weights, for the clarification of language in the statute. Representative Swanson moved introduction of the bill, seconded by Representative Arpke. The motion carried.

The Chairman drew the Committee's attention to information provided by Pat Hubbell who discussed reasons why trains had been rerouted through different areas and crews moved. After all questions had been answered, Chairman Hayzlett thanked Mr. Hubbell for the information.

There being no further business before the Committee the meeting was adjourned.
