

Journal of the Senate

FIFTY-NINTH DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS
Friday, April 9, 2021, 10:00 a.m.

The Senate was called to order by President Ty Masterson.
The roll was called with 40 senators present.
Invocation by Reverend Cecil T. Washington:

God Bless America!
Psalm 33:12

Psalm 33:12 says, "Blessed is the nation whose God is the LORD, the people whom He has chosen as His heritage!" I don't know if Irving Berlin had this Scripture in mind, in 1940, when he composed the song, God Bless America. That prayer song has become, unofficially, a national anthem of the United States. Irving Berlin said in an interview, that God Bless America, is not a patriotic song. This prayer song is an expression of gratitude for blessing us in this country.

God bless America, land that I love.
Stand beside her and guide her
Through the night with the light from above.
From the mountains to the prairies,
To the oceans white with foam.
God bless America, my home sweet home.
God bless America, my home sweet home. Amen!

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by President Masterson.

CONFERENCE COMMITTEE REPORT

MR. PRESIDENT and MR. SPEAKER: Your committee on conference on House amendments to SB 55 submits the following report:

The Senate accedes to all House amendments to the bill, and your committee on conference further agrees to amend the bill as printed with House Committee amendments, as follows:

On page 1, by striking all in lines 7 through 36;

By striking all on pages 2 through 4;

On page 5, by striking all in lines 1 through 4; following line 4, by inserting:

"Section 1. The provisions of sections 1 through 6, and amendments thereto, shall be known and may be cited as the fairness in women's sports act.

Sec. 2. The legislature hereby finds:

(a) There are "inherent differences between men and women," and that these differences "remain cause for celebration, but not for denigration of the members of either sex or for artificial constraints on an individual's opportunity," United States v. Virginia, 518 U.S. 515, 533 (1996);

(b) these "inherent differences" range from chromosomal and hormonal differences to physiological differences;

(c) men generally have "denser, stronger bones, tendons, and ligaments" and "larger hearts, greater lung volume per body mass, a higher red blood cell count, and higher haemoglobin," Neel Burton, The Battle of the Sexes, Psychology Today (July 2, 2012);

(d) men also have higher natural levels of testosterone, which affects traits such as hemoglobin levels, body fat content, the storage and use of carbohydrates, and the development of type 2 muscle fibers, all of which result in men being able to generate higher speed and power during physical activity, Doriane Lambelet Coleman, Sex in Sport, 80 Law and Contemporary Problems 63, 74 (2017) (quoting Gina Kolata, Men, Women and Speed. 2 Words: Got Testosterone?, N.Y. Times (Aug. 21, 2008));

(e) the biological differences between females and males, especially as it relates to natural levels of testosterone, "explain the male and female secondary sex characteristics which develop during puberty and have lifelong effects, including those most important for success in sport: categorically different strength, speed, and endurance," Doriane Lambelet Coleman and Wickliffe Shreve, "Comparing Athletic Performances: The Best Elite Women to Boys and Men," Duke Law Center for Sports Law and Policy;

(f) while classifications based on sex are generally disfavored, the United States Supreme Court has recognized that "sex classifications may be used to compensate women for particular economic disabilities [they have] suffered, to promote equal employment opportunity, [and] to advance full development of the talent and capacities of our Nation's people," United States v. Virginia, 518 U.S. 515, 533 (1996);

(g) one place where sex classifications allow for the "full development of the talent and capacities of our Nation's people" is in the context of sports and athletics;

(h) courts have recognized that the inherent, physiological differences between males and females result in different athletic capabilities. See e.g. Kleczek v. Rhode Island Interscholastic League, Inc., 612 A.2d 13 734, 738 (R.I. 1992) ("Because of innate physiological differences, boys and girls are not similarly situated as they enter athletic competition."); Petrie v. Ill. High Sch. Ass'n, 394 N.E.2d 855, 861 (Ill. App. Ct. 1979) (noting that "high school boys [generally possess physiological advantages over] their girl counterparts" and that those advantages give them an unfair lead over girls in some sports like "high school track");

(i) a recent study of female and male Olympic performances since 1983 found that, although athletes from both sexes improved over the time span, the "gender gap" between female and male performances remained stable. "These suggest that women's performances at the high level will never match those of men." Valerie Thibault et al., Women and men in sport performance: The gender gap has not evolved since 1983, 9 Journal of Sports Science and Medicine 214, 219 (2010);

(j) as Duke law professor and All-American track athlete Doriane Coleman, tennis champion Martina Navratilova, and Olympic track gold medalist Sanya Richards-Ross recently wrote: "The evidence is unequivocal that starting in puberty, in every sport except sailing, shooting, and riding, there will always be significant numbers of boys and men who would beat the best girls and women in head-to-head competition. Claims to the contrary are simply a denial of science," Doriane Coleman, Martina Navratilova, et al., Pass the Equality Act, But Don't Abandon Title IX, Washington Post (Apr. 29, 2019);

(k) the benefits that natural testosterone provides to male athletes is not diminished through the use of puberty blockers and cross-sex hormones. A recent study on the impact of such treatments found that even "after 12 months of hormonal therapy," a man who identifies as a woman and is taking cross-sex hormones "had an absolute advantage" over female athletes and "will still likely have performance benefits" over women, Tommy Lundberg et al., "Muscle strength, size and composition following 12 months of gender-affirming treatment in transgender individuals: retained advantage for the transwomen," Karolinksa Institutet (Sept. 26, 2019); and

(l) having separate sex-specific teams furthers efforts to promote sex equality. Sex-specific teams accomplish this by providing opportunities for female athletes to demonstrate their skill, strength and athletic abilities while also providing them with opportunities to obtain recognition and accolades, college scholarships and the numerous other long-term benefits that flow from success in athletic endeavors.

Sec. 3. (a) Interscholastic, intercollegiate, intramural or club athletic teams or sports that are sponsored by a public elementary or secondary school, a postsecondary educational institution, as such term is defined in K.S.A. 74-3201b, and amendments thereto, or any school or other postsecondary educational institution whose students or teams compete against a public school or postsecondary educational institution shall be expressly designated as one of the following based on biological sex:

- (1) Males, men or boys;
- (2) females, women or girls; or
- (3) coed or mixed.

(b) Athletic teams or sports designated for females, women or girls shall not be open to students of the male sex.

(c) (1) The Kansas state high school activities association shall adopt rules and regulations for its member schools for the implementation of this section.

(2) The state board of regents and the governing body for each municipal university, community college and technical college shall adopt rules and regulations for the postsecondary educational institutions governed by each such entity, respectively, for the implementation of this section.

Sec. 4. No governmental entity, licensing or accrediting organization or athletic association or organization shall entertain a complaint, open an investigation or take any other adverse action against a school or postsecondary educational institution for maintaining separate interscholastic, intercollegiate, intramural or club athletic teams or sports for students of the female sex.

Sec. 5. (a) Any student who is deprived of an athletic opportunity or suffers any direct or indirect harm as a result of a violation of section 3, and amendments thereto, shall have a private cause of action for injunctive relief, damages and any other relief available under law against the school or postsecondary educational institution.

(b) Any student who is subject to retaliation or other adverse action by a school, postsecondary educational institution or athletic association or organization as a result of reporting a violation of section 3, and amendments thereto, to an employee or representative of such school, postsecondary educational institution or athletic association or organization, or to any state or federal agency with oversight of schools or postsecondary educational institutions in this state, shall have a private cause of action for injunctive relief, damages and any other relief available under law against the school, institution or athletic association or organization.

(c) Any school or postsecondary educational institution that suffers any direct or indirect harm as a result of a violation of section 3 or 4, and amendments thereto, shall have a private cause of action for injunctive relief, damages and any other relief available under law against the governmental entity, licensing or accrediting organization or athletic association or organization.

(d) All civil actions must be initiated within two years after the harm occurred. Persons or organizations who prevail on a claim brought pursuant to this section shall be entitled to monetary damages, including for any psychological, emotional and physical harm suffered, reasonable attorney fees and costs and any other appropriate relief.

Sec. 6. The provisions of sections 1 through 5, and amendments thereto, are hereby declared to be severable. If any provision of sections 1 through 5, and amendments thereto, or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of sections 1 through 5, and amendments thereto, that can be given effect without the invalid provision or application.";

Also on page 5, in line 6, by striking "Kansas register" and inserting "statute book";

And by renumbering sections accordingly;

On page 1, in the title, in line 1, by striking all after "concerning"; by striking all in lines 2 and 3; in line 4, by striking all before the period and inserting "education; relating to student athletes; creating the fairness in women's sports act; restricting participation on women's teams to female students; providing a cause of action for violations";

And your committee on conference recommends the adoption of this report.

The Conference Committee Report was adopted.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

Mr. President: This bill on transgender athletes was a solution in search of a problem, as we have not had a problem here in Kansas. Competitive high school and college sports already have regulations to deal with trans athletes. The bill we heard was meant to divide us. It puts Kansas at potential risk with regard to NCAA, FIFA and other tournaments, having economic and national perception impacts on our business community. Beyond potential economic impact, it also targets an already at risk population of our kids going through often confusing situations. It goes beyond women competing in high school and college. It targets private and intramural sports. It goes much further and targets youth even before puberty. I found the original language containing genital checking offensive and am glad that was begrudgingly taken out. It is unnecessary regulation as proposed and I vote no.—JEFF PITTMAN

Senators Francisco, Pettey and Sykes request the record to show they concur with the Explanation of Vote offered by Senator Pittman on SB 55.

Mr. President: Over 40% of transgender men and women have said they have attempted suicide. Rates are even higher among trans women and trans women of color. Here are the names of those trans Americans we have lost due to transgender violence whether suicide or murder in 2020 alone: Asia Jynaé Foster, Yunieski Carey Herrera, Angel Unique, Sara Blackwood, Brooklyn Deshuna, Felycya Harris, Michelle Michellyn Ramos Vargas, Mia Green, Aerrion Burnett, Kee Sam, Lea Rayshon Daye, Aja Raquell Rhone-Spears, Queasha D Hardy, Dior H Ova, Marilyn Cazares, Summer Taylor, Bree Black, Shaki Peters, Merci Mack, Brayla Stone, Brian “Egypt” Powers, Selena Reyes-Hernandez, Jayne Thompson, Riah Milton, Dominique “Rem’mie” Fells, Tony McDade, Helle Jae O’Regan, Nina Pop, Penélope Díaz Ramírez, Layla Pelaez Sánchez, Serena Angélique Velázquez Ramos, Johanna Metzger, Lexi, Monika Diamond, Scott/Scottlynn Devore, Yampi Méndez Arocho, Neulisa Luciano Ruiz, Dustin Parker. To save the lives of transgender Kansans and to keep our state safe and welcoming for ALL, I vote NO on SB 55.—MARY WARE

ORIGINAL MOTION

Having voted on the prevailing side, Senator Pyle moved the Senate reconsider its action on SB 175. The motion carried and the bill was returned to final action on Conference Committee Reports.

CONFERENCE COMMITTEE REPORTS

MR. PRESIDENT and MR. SPEAKER: Your committee on conference on House amendments to SB 175 submits the following report:

The Senate accedes to all House amendments to the bill, and your committee on conference further agrees to amend the bill as printed with House Committee amendments, as follows:

On page 1, following line 9, by inserting:

"WHEREAS, The Kansas Legislature and the Kansas Supreme Court agree that, for Kansans, children are our state's most valuable resource; and

WHEREAS, The Kansas Supreme Court in Gannon IV found that nearly 25% of all public education students are not performing at grade level and that significant achievement gaps exist between all students and certain subgroups of students; and

WHEREAS, The Kansas Supreme Court acknowledged that certain student subgroups can have their own special achievement challenges; and

WHEREAS, Throughout the Gannon litigation, the Legislature has committed to improving the academic achievement of all students with a particular focus on the students identified by the Court; and

WHEREAS, The Kansas Supreme Court has ruled that the current school finance system provides constitutionally adequate funding and equitable allocation of resources and that the Legislature has substantially complied with the Court's orders expressed in Gannon VI; and

WHEREAS, Special challenges require special measures and the Legislature remains committed to providing a finance system that is flexible and offers tailored solutions to raise academic achievement, particularly for those students who face special challenges; and

WHEREAS, Education savings accounts that target those students who qualify for at-risk educational services provide an additional way for families to tailor the entire educational experience of the student, as opposed to simply tailoring the schooling of such student; and

WHEREAS, Providing families with the access and means necessary to customize the educational experience of a student will provide families with options to increase the student's academic achievement.

Now, therefore:"

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

Mr. President: I vote aye on HB 2007 but with grave concerns. This budget does not include the funding for the K-12 budget. Unlike traditional K-12 budgeting, the money for K-12 was not inserted in the budget but rather was placed in a House Conference Committee report that included education policy that was never vetted by the Senate Education Committee, nor debated by the Committee of the Whole in the Senate. We have the responsibility to fund K-12 education for all of our children. I hope that this body will be resolute in putting the required money to fund K-12 in the Omnibus Budget when we return for final session.—CAROLYN MCGINN

Senators Bowers, Dietrich and O'Shea request the record to show they concur with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator McGinn on HB 2007.

Mr. President: This budget is not balanced nor sustainable. When we consider budgets, we must always prioritize the need to protect our state's future and be fiscally responsible. We cannot pay for tax cuts for giant multinational corporations, keep the lights on and keep our state running, and operate with a positive balance under this proposed budget. This budget includes no money for K-12 education, which accounts for a huge portion of our annual funding obligation. Without funding our schools, it still leaves our state deep in the red. This budget is fiscally irresponsible, it will land us in court, and it will cost our state money and hurt our kids. I vote no.—DINAH SYKES

Senators Francisco and Pettey request the record to show they concur with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator Sykes on HB 2007.

If sufficient funds are not available for an extraordinary utility costs loan deposit, then the applications may be considered in the order received when funds are once again available, subject to a review by the lending institution. The fact that an eligible borrower received a loan under the Kansas economic recovery loan deposit program shall not preclude such eligible borrower from receiving a loan under this program.

The loan shall be at a rate as provided in section 5(c), and amendments thereto. A certification of compliance with this section in the form and manner as prescribed by the state treasurer shall be required of the eligible lending institution.

New Sec. 7. The state of Kansas and the state treasurer shall not be liable to any eligible lending institution in any manner for payment of the principal or interest on any extraordinary utility costs loan deposit loan to an eligible borrower. If the secretary does not award a grant to the specified county in the same fiscal year as such request, the secretary shall return the amount of contributed moneys to the private stakeholder and any such certification shall lapse.

(4) Prior to applying for a rural hospital innovation grant, any eligible county may enter into memorandums of understanding and other necessary agreements with private stakeholders and other eligible counties.

(5) The board of county commissioners of an eligible county, or the board's designee, may apply to the secretary for a rural hospital innovation grant in the form and manner prescribed by the secretary of health and environment. Such application shall include:

(A) A description of the hospital for which the grant moneys will be expended, including the name and location of the hospital;

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

Mr. Vice President: "The Rural Emergency Hospital Act" does not put a monetary burden on the hospitals that voluntarily opt in to this new designation. The $10 million giveaway is inappropriate. Telemedicine (primary care) by out-of-state physicians unlicensed in Kansas is an unnecessary threat to our rural providers.—MARK STEFFEN
