TO: Chairman Brunk, Vice-Chairman Patton, and Ranking Minority Member Loganbill, House Standing Committee on Federal and State Affairs

RE: House Bill 2422, concerning the personal and family protection act.

Thank you, Mr. Chairman and members of the committee for the opportunity to introduce HB2422, an act concerning concealed carry for corrections and parole officers.

Essentially the bill exempts such personnel, as defined in K.S.A. 75-5202, from the required weapons safety and training course, as retired law enforcement officers currently are.
