

Home Address Exception to the Open Records Act; Sub. for HB 2427

Sub. for HB 2427 creates exceptions to the Kansas Open Records Act for records of a public agency on a public website that identify the home address or home ownership of:

- Law enforcement officers;
- Parole officers;
- Court services officers;
- Community correctional services officers;
- Federal judges;
- Justices of the Kansas Supreme Court;
- Kansas Court of Appeals judges;
- District judges and district magistrate judges;
- The U.S. attorney and assistant U.S. attorneys for the District of Kansas;
- The Kansas Attorney General and assistant attorneys general; and
- A district attorney or county attorney, or an assistant district attorney or assistant county attorney.

Further, any such person or person's employer may file a request with the record custodian to have the information removed from the website. Within seven days of receiving such a request, the public agency is required to remove the information.
