

Rural Water Districts; HB 2472

HB 2472 changes the definition of a "participating member" of a rural water district by removing the requirement that such members own land within the district. By removing this requirement, "participating member" includes non-landowners who own meters with the right to connect to the district's water system.