

SESSION OF 2012

SUPPLEMENTAL NOTE ON SENATE BILL NO. 367

As Recommended by Senate Committee on Judiciary

Brief*

SB 367 would allow jury commissioners, on or after July 1, 2013, to request and use lists of Kansas income tax filers who reside in the county for the purposes of preparation and revision of jury lists. Any commissioner using such records would be subject to statutory confidentiality provisions. The Secretary of Revenue would be authorized to disclose the name, last known address, and residency status of income tax filers to jury commissioners for this purpose.

(Note: the bill appears to make additional changes. However, these amendments are actually current law and are included in this bill for the purpose of reconciling different versions of the statute.)
