

SENATE RESOLUTION No. 1850

A Resolution declaring April 28, 2011 as Workers' Memorial Day in Kansas.

WHEREAS, The Kansas AFL-CIO and its affiliated unions are joining in a nationwide effort to commemorate workers injured, disabled or killed on the job and focus attention on what needs to be done to prevent senseless deaths and injuries; and

WHEREAS, Each April 28th, since 1989, Workers' Memorial Day has been observed in nearly one hundred countries and officially endorsed by the International Confederation of Free Trade Unions; and

WHEREAS, April 28th falls on the anniversary of the enactment of federal legislation creating the Occupational Safety and Health Administration (OSHA), which was signed into law by President Richard Nixon on April 28, 1971; and

WHEREAS, Since its inception, OSHA has assisted employers and employees in creating better working conditions and has helped cut workplace fatalities by more than 60% and occupational injury and illness by 40%; and

WHEREAS, Despite OSHA's best efforts, each year 5,000 workers nationwide die from job-related injuries and illnesses and millions more are injured. One hundred thousand more die a slow death from cancer, lung disease or other disabling conditions caused by exposure to toxins at work; and

WHEREAS, Last year, 76 of our fellow Kansans lost their lives in the workplace and an additional 38,200 sustained injury or illness because of their workplace; and

WHEREAS, Today, April 28, 2011, the 40th anniversary of the Occupational Safety and Health Act, Kansas workers will remember those who have suffered and died in the workplace. They will also join their brothers and sisters all across this country in a renewed commitment to prevent those tragedies from happening again: Now, therefore,

Be it resolved by the Senate of the State of Kansas: That we remember the American workers who have been injured, disabled or killed on the job by declaring April 28, 2011 as Workers' Memorial Day in Kansas; and

Be it further resolved: That the Secretary of the Senate shall send five enrolled copies of this resolution to the Kansas AFL-CIO, 2131 S.W. 31st Street, Topeka, KS 66611.

Senate Resolution No. 1850 was sponsored by Senator Anthony Hensley.

I hereby certify that the above RESOLUTION originated in the SENATE, and was adopted by that body
