

2012 Kansas Statutes

9-1911. Receiver may borrow money. The receiver of any insolvent bank or trust company may borrow money and pledge the assets of such insolvent bank or trust company but only upon prior written approval of the commissioner.

History: L. 1947, ch. 102, § 119; June 30.