

2012 Kansas Statutes

17-2233. Credit union administrator; appointment, duties, salary, expenses and term. The credit union administrator shall be appointed by the governor, subject to confirmation by the senate as provided in K.S.A. 75-4315b, and amendments thereto. Except as provided by K.S.A. 46-2601, and amendments thereto, no person appointed as administrator shall exercise any power, duty or function as administrator until confirmed by the senate. Any person appointed as the administrator shall have at least three years' actual, practical experience in the operation and management of a credit union. The administrator shall not be a member of the council. The governor shall fix the compensation of the administrator. In addition, the administrator shall be entitled to receive the actual and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of the administrator's duties. The administrator shall be in the unclassified service under the Kansas civil service act. The term of office of the administrator holding office on the effective date of this act shall expire on December 31, 2009. Thereafter, the administrator shall be appointed for a term of four years and until a successor is appointed and confirmed. If a vacancy occurs, the governor shall appoint a successor to fill the vacancy for the unexpired term. The administrator shall attend the meetings of the council and shall have the general charge of the work of the council and the general supervision of credit unions. The administrator shall keep a permanent record of all meetings and proceedings of the council at the office of the administrator.
