

2012 Kansas Statutes

17-4653. Purpose; incorporators. Five or more persons may organize a cooperative, nonprofit, membership corporation under the provisions of the renewable energy electric generation cooperative act for the purposes of conducting or promoting any lawful business under the general corporation laws of the state, generating electricity from renewable resources and technologies and transmitting and selling such electricity at wholesale.

History: L. 2003, ch. 81, § 3; July 1.