

2012 Kansas Statutes

17-5642. Appeal of conservatorship or receivership matters; effect. If an association deems itself aggrieved by the action of the commissioner in taking possession of its property, business and assets, for the purposes of conservatorship or receivership, or any order issued by the commissioner in connection with any conservatorship or receivership, it may appeal from such action to the board. No action taken by a conservator or a receiver while in office shall be invalidated by such appeal having been filed or by any order of the board. The filing of such an appeal shall not remove a conservator from the management of an association or a receiver from possession of the property and assets of an association during the pendency of such appeal.
