

2012 Kansas Statutes

22-2610. Property taken in other state and brought into this state. When property taken in another state by theft or robbery shall have been brought into this state, the venue is in any county into or through which such property shall have been brought.

History: L. 1970, ch. 129, § 22-2610; July 1.