

2012 Kansas Statutes

25-2319. Record of vote in registration books. At every election, one of the judges of the election board shall, as each person votes, enter on the registration book the word "voted," or some other distinguishing mark prescribed by the county election officer, on the line where such person's name appears.

History: L. 1968, ch. 55, § 19; April 30.