

2012 Kansas Statutes

27-335. Same; property and records of authority public; open public meetings. All contracts, leases, agreements, books and records of the authority shall constitute public books and records and shall be available for examination during normal business hours. The authority shall cause an audit of its books and records to be conducted, at least annually, by an independent certified public accountant and copies of the report of such examination shall be available for public inspection. The authority shall also provide the city and county a copy of the report of such examination. All meetings of the authority shall be open to the public and shall be subject to the provisions of K.S.A. 75-4317 et seq., and amendments thereto.

History: L. 1978, ch. 148, § 9; April 20.