

2012 Kansas Statutes

35-207. Dwight D. Eisenhower Day. October 14 of each year is hereby designated as Dwight D. Eisenhower Day in the state of Kansas. Officials of the state and political subdivisions of this state are requested to display the flag of the United States on all public buildings on such date and the people of this state are invited to observe this day in schools and other suitable places with appropriate ceremonies in special tribute to and in commemoration of the life and legacy of Dwight D. Eisenhower.

History: L. 1999, ch. 144, § 1; July 1.