

2012 Kansas Statutes

40-2a02. State, District of Columbia, territorial and municipal obligations. Any insurance company other than life heretofore or hereafter organized under any law of this state may invest with the direction or approval of a majority of its board of directors or authorized committee thereof, any of its funds, or any part thereof in bonds or other evidences of indebtedness issued, assumed or guaranteed by the District of Columbia, or by any state, insular or territorial possession of the United States of America, or by any county, city, town, school, road, drainage or other district, located within any state, insular or territorial possession of the United States of America, or by any political or civil subdivision or governmental authority of any such state, district or insular or territorial possession, or by any agency or instrumentality of or authority related to any one or more such states, districts, or insular or territorial possessions, or political or civil subdivisions.

History: L. 1972, ch. 173, § 2; July 1.