

2012 Kansas Statutes

44-550. Records of proceedings, documents; custody and preservation. The director shall designate a person to maintain a full, true and correct record of all proceedings of the director, of all documents or papers filed by the director, or with the director, of all awards, orders and decisions made by the director and such person shall be responsible to the director for the safe custody and preservation of all such papers and documents.

History: L. 1927, ch. 232, § 35; L. 1976, ch. 370, § 20; July 1.