

2012 Kansas Statutes

46-1207a. Sale and disposition of legislative publications, documents, information or records; fees, charges and other proceeds, disposition; deposit of legislative documents with secretary of state; legislative stationery and printed material supplies. (a) The legislative coordinating council may provide for sale or other disposition of copies of any publication, document or other paper, information or record, regardless of form or characteristics, produced by or under the legislative branch, whether such copies are printed or reproduced in any other manner. Such council may fix charges for sale of any such copies, and such charges may include costs of mailing, reproduction and other expenses. Whenever such council provides for the sale of copies under this section, the same shall be sold and distributed by or through the director of legislative administrative services or such other state officer as such council specifies. All amounts received under this section by or for any such sales shall be remitted to the state treasurer in accordance with the provisions of K.S.A. 75-4215, and amendments thereto. Upon receipt of each such remittance, the state treasurer shall deposit the entire amount in the state treasury to the credit of the legislative special revenue fund. The provisions of this section shall not apply to the sale or distribution of the Kansas Statutes Annotated, the session laws of Kansas or other publications, documents or papers the sale of which is specifically provided for by law.

(b) At the conclusion of each legislative session, the officers of each house may deposit for safekeeping with the secretary of state such legislative documents and other papers as they may determine.

(c) All moneys received by the director of legislative administrative services for the disposition of surplus property of any office or agency of the legislative branch shall be deposited in the state treasury to the credit of the legislative special revenue fund.

(d) The legislative coordinating council may provide for additional legislative stationery or other printed material supplies for members of the legislature to be provided at cost as determined by the council. All moneys received by the director of legislative administrative services under this subsection shall be remitted to the state treasurer in accordance with the provisions of K.S.A. 75-4215, and amendments thereto. Upon receipt of each such remittance, the state treasurer shall deposit the entire amount in the state treasury to the credit of the legislative special revenue fund.

(e) Except as otherwise specifically provided by statute on or after the effective date of this act, all moneys received by the director of legislative administrative services on or after November 18, 1991, under this or any other statute shall be remitted to the state treasurer in accordance with the provisions of K.S.A. 75-4215, and amendments thereto. Upon receipt of each such remittance, the state treasurer shall deposit the entire amount in the state treasury to the credit of the legislative special revenue fund and any such moneys deposited in the state treasury to the credit of the state general fund shall be transferred from the state general fund to the legislative special revenue fund by the director of accounts and reports upon certification by the director of legislative administrative services of the amount to be transferred.
