

2012 Kansas Statutes

56-1a405. Power of estate of deceased or incompetent partner. If a partner who is an individual dies or is adjudged by a court of competent jurisdiction to be incompetent to manage the partner's person or property, the partner's executor, administrator, guardian, conservator or other legal representative may exercise all of the partner's rights for the purpose of settling the partner's estate or administering the partner's property, including any power the partner had to give an assignee the right to become a limited partner. If a partner is a corporation, trust or other entity and is dissolved or terminated, the powers of that partner may be exercised by its legal representative or successor.
