

2012 Kansas Statutes

59-1709. Accounting on resignation. A fiduciary may resign his or her trust at any time, but the fiduciary's resignation shall not be effective until the court shall have examined and allowed his or her final account and shall have made an order accepting such resignation.

History: L. 1939, ch. 180, § 139; July 1.