

2012 Kansas Statutes

59-1714. Compromise with debtor. Whenever it appears for the best interests of the estate, the fiduciary may, on order of the court, effect a fair and reasonable compromise with any debtor or other obligor.

History: L. 1939, ch. 180, § 144; July 1.