65-6408. Refusal to grant, suspension, condition, limitation, qualification, restriction or revocation of license; grounds. The board may refuse to grant licensure to, or may suspend, revoke, condition, limit, qualify or restrict the licensure of any individual who the board, after a hearing, determines:

(1) Is incompetent to practice marriage and family therapy, or is found to engage in the practice of marriage and family therapy in a manner harmful or dangerous to a client or to the public;

(2) is convicted by a court of competent jurisdiction of a crime that the board determines is of a nature to render the convicted person unfit to practice marriage and family therapy;

(3) has violated a provision of the marriage and family therapists licensure act or one or more of the rules and regulations of the board;

(4) has obtained or attempted to obtain a license or license renewal by bribery or fraudulent representation;

(5) has knowingly made a false statement on a form required by the board for license or license renewal;

(6) has failed to obtain continuing education credits required by rules and regulations of the board;

(7) has been found guilty of unprofessional conduct as defined by rules and regulations established by the board; or

(8) has had a registration, license or certificate as a marriage and family therapist revoked, suspended or limited, or has had other disciplinary action taken, or an application for registration, license or certificate denied, by the proper regulatory authority of another state, territory, District of Columbia or another country, a certified copy of the record of the action of the other jurisdiction being conclusive evidence thereof.
