

2012 Kansas Statutes

74-137. Same; reference to abolished agency; act does not impair existing contracts. On July 1, 1988, whenever any board, council, committee or commission abolished under K.S.A. 74-131 is referred to or designated by statute, contract, lease, agreement or other document, such reference or designation shall be void and of no force and effect, except that nothing in this act shall in any way impair existing contracts, leases or agreements.

History: L. 1988, ch. 301, § 7; May 26.