

2012 Kansas Statutes

74-5,121a. "Agency head" means the secretary or animal health commissioner. For purposes of administrative proceedings of the division of animal health of the Kansas department of agriculture, "agency head" means the Kansas secretary of agriculture or the animal health commissioner of the Kansas department of agriculture, when acting on behalf of the secretary.

History: L. 2012, ch. 125, § 2; July 1.