

2012 Kansas Statutes

74-2618. Transfer of property and records; governor to resolve conflicts. (a) On and after the effective date of this act, when any conflict arises as to the disposition of any power, duty or function or the unexpended balance of any appropriation as a result of any transfer made by this act, or under the authority of this act, such conflict shall be resolved by the governor, and the decision of the governor shall be final.

(b) In all cases under the provisions of this act where part or all of the powers, duties and functions of any state agency are divided between the Kansas water office and any other state agency, the Kansas water office shall succeed to all property and records which were used for or pertain to the performance of the powers, duties and functions transferred to the Kansas water office. Any conflict as to the proper disposition of property or records arising under this section, and resulting from the transfer, attachment or abolition of any state agency, or all or part of the powers, duties and functions thereof, shall be determined by the governor, and the decision of the governor shall be final.

History: L. 1981, ch. 302, § 6; July 1.