

2012 Kansas Statutes

74-32,172. Same; revocation or imposition of conditions; notice; hearing. (a) The state board may revoke a certificate of approval or impose reasonable conditions upon the continued approval represented by a certificate. Prior to revocation or imposition of conditions upon a certificate of approval, the state board shall give written notice to the holder of the certificate of the impending action setting forth the grounds for the action contemplated to be taken and affording a hearing on a date within 30 days after the date of such notice. Hearings under this section shall be conducted in accordance with the provisions of the Kansas administrative procedure act.

(b) A certificate of approval may be revoked or conditioned if the state board has reasonable cause to believe that the institution is in violation of any provision of this act or of any rules and regulations adopted under this act.
