

2012 Kansas Statutes

75-5298. Corrections advisory boards; terms; vacancies; officers; open proceedings, rules. (a) Members of a corrections advisory board appointed in accordance with K.S.A. 75-5297 and amendments thereto shall serve for terms of two years from and after the date of their appointment and shall remain in office until their successors are duly appointed. All vacancies in a corrections advisory board shall be filled for the unexpired term in the manner that the position was originally filled. Each corrections advisory board shall elect its own officers.

(b) All proceedings of the corrections advisory board and any committee or subcommittee of the board shall be open to the public in accordance with and subject to the provisions of K.S.A. 75-4317 to 75-4320, inclusive, and acts amendatory thereto. All votes of members of the corrections advisory board shall be recorded and shall become matters of public record.

(c) The corrections advisory board shall promulgate and implement rules concerning the conduct of proceedings and attendance of members at board meetings.
