

2012 Kansas Statutes

75-5637. Crippled children's commission abolished; powers, duties and functions transferred. For the purpose of consolidating and coordinating certain functions within the executive branch of state government, the crippled children's commission established by K.S.A. 74-3401 is hereby abolished, and all of the powers, duties, functions, records, property and personnel of the crippled children's commission are hereby transferred to the secretary of health and environment, except as otherwise provided in this order.

History: L. 1977, ch. 283, § 1; July 1.