

2012 Kansas Statutes

75-5906. Conflicts as to disposition of powers, functions, duties, funds, property or records resolved by governor. (a) On and after July 1, 1977, when any conflict arises as to the disposition of any power, duty or function or the unexpended balance of any appropriation as a result of any transfer made by this act, or under authority of this act, such conflict shall be resolved by the governor, and the decision of the governor shall be final.

(b) On and after July 1, 1977, the department on aging shall succeed to all property and records which were used for, or pertain to, the performance of the powers, duties and functions transferred to the department on aging under the provisions of this act. Any conflict as to the proper disposition of such property or records arising under this section, and resulting from any transfer made by this act of powers, duties and functions to the secretary of aging, shall be determined by the governor, whose decision shall be final.
