

2012 Kansas Statutes

76-1931. Same; member refusing to vacate premises, when; forfeiture of rights. If any member of such soldiers' home shall refuse to vacate the premises upon receiving a furlough from the officers designated to enforce the rules and regulations, such refusal shall constitute a forfeiture of his or her right to remain in the home and such member shall be forthwith discharged by the Kansas veterans' commission.

History: L. 1941, ch. 365, § 5; L. 1953, ch. 361, § 17; July 1.