

2012 Kansas Statutes

76-2017. Acquisition of site of the historic pony express station, situated near Hanover in Washington county; eminent domain. For the purpose of acquiring said land and improvements thereon and carrying out the provisions of this act, there is hereby conferred upon the Washington County Oregon Trail Association the same rights of eminent domain as are conferred by law upon corporations in the acquisition of such lands and the buildings and improvements thereon, for and in the name of the state of Kansas.

History: L. 1941, ch. 71, § 2; April 11.