

2012 Kansas Statutes

77-709. Attorney fees and expenses. On and after January 1, 1996, the court may award reasonable attorney fees and expenses to an owner of private property who successfully establishes that a governmental action constitutes a taking of such owner's private property.

History: L. 1995, ch. 170, § 9; July 1.