

2012 Kansas Statutes

79-2910a. Actions to recover tax by the U.S. and other states and subdivisions; rights. Any state of the United States of America or any political subdivision thereof shall have the right to sue in the courts of Kansas to recover any tax which may be owing to it when the like right is accorded to the state of Kansas and its political subdivisions by such state, whether such right is granted by statutory authority or as a matter of comity.

History: L. 1951, ch. 505, § 1; June 30.