

2012 Kansas Statutes

80-1521. Same; existing governing body to exercise powers until new body qualified. In the event that the governing body of any existing fire district is changed by the provisions of this act, the governing body of the fire district in office at the time this act takes effect shall continue in office and continue to exercise their powers until the members of the new governing body are appointed and have qualified.

History: L. 1953, ch. 466, § 7; July 1.