

Cox is the nation's third-largest broadband communications company, serving more than 300,000 subscribers in Kansas. This advanced broadband, fiber-optic network has become the conduit through which we deliver a wide range of advanced communications services. We will continue to make the necessary investments to ensure that the residents in our communities have a superior communications infrastructure.

At Cox, our philosophy is to make a difference in the communities we serve and in which we live. Cox is committed to Kansas in the following ways:

- Largest cable telecommunications provider in Kansas serving 85 communities
- Employs more than 1,140 Kansans
- Pays more than $69 million in Kansas payroll taxes and employee wages annually
- Pays more than $10.5 million in municipal franchise fees annually in Kansas
- Pays more than $76 million to Kansas contractors and vendors annually
- Provides 100% of Kansas communities with state-of-the-art, broadband fiber technology
- Provides public, educational and government access channels to local communities at a value of more than $9 million annually
- Donates more than $1.2 million through cash and in-kind donations annually to community organizations focused on youth, technology and education
- Supports five Internet Crimes Against Children (ICAC) Units with untraceable Internet connections dedicated to cyber crime investigation
- Being an active, hands-on part of our communities is an integral part of the Culture at Cox. Through more than 110 sponsorships of Kansas events, our employees look to make a difference in the lives of our friends and neighbors through community volunteer opportunities.
