A durable power of attorney is an important legal document. You should read this durable power of attorney carefully. When effective, this durable power of attorney will give your attorney in fact the right to deal with property that you now own or might acquire in the future. If you do not understand the durable power of attorney, or any provision of it, you should ask your attorney to explain it to you prior to signing the document"; and

(5) the durable power of attorney contains the following notice statement to the attorney in fact at the conclusion of the durable power of attorney, in not less than 14-point boldface type, or a reasonable

"Notice to Person Accepting the Appointment as Attorney in Fact.

32 A person who is appointed an attorney in fact under a durable power 33 of attorney has no duty to exercise the authority conferred in the power of 34 attorney, unless the attorney in fact has agreed expressly in writing to act 35 for the principal in such circumstances. By acting or agreeing to act as the 36 attorney in fact under this durable power of attorney, you assume the 37 fiduciary and other legal responsibilities of an agent. This relationship 38 will continue until you resign or the durable power of attorney is revoked 39 or terminated. Your responsibilities shall include:

40 1. The legal duty to act according to the instructions from the 41 principal, or, where there are no instructions, solely in the best interests of 42 the principal, avoiding conflicts of interest that would impair your ability 43 to act in the principal's best interests.

1 2. Keeping the principal's funds and property separate and distinct 2 from any funds or assets you own or control, unless otherwise permitted 3 by law.

4 3. Keeping a record of all receipts, disbursements and transactions 5 made on behalf of the principal.

6 4. Disclosing your identity as an attorney in fact whenever you act 7 for the principal.

8 You may not use the principal's assets to benefit yourself or make gifts 9 to yourself or anyone else unless the principal has specifically granted you that authority in the durable power of attorney. If you have been granted 10 that authority, you must act according to the instructions of the principal 11 12 or, where there are no such instructions, in the principal's best interests. Failure to do so may result in criminal prosecution under the laws of the 13 14 state of Kansas. In addition to criminal prosecution, you may also be sued 15 in civil court.

16 You may resign by giving written notice to the principal and to any co-17 attorney in fact, successor attorney in fact, or the principal's guardian if 18 one has been appointed.

If there is anything about this document or your responsibilities that you do not understand, you should seek legal advice before accepting the appointment."

(b) (1) All acts done by an attorney in fact pursuant to a durable power of attorney shall inure to the benefit of and bind the principal and the principal's successors in interest, notwithstanding any disability of the principal. An attorney in fact shall use the principal's money, property or other assets only in the principal's best interest and the attorney in fact shall not use the principal's money, property or other assets for the benefit of the attorney in fact.

(2) Any acts done by the attorney in fact not strictly in the principal's best interest or the best interest of the principal's estate are in violation of the Kansas power of attorney act, unless such acts are otherwise specifically provided for in written detail in the power of attorney, and may result in prosecution under the criminal laws of the state of Kansas.

(3) Any acts done by the attorney in fact to intimidate or deceive the principal in procuring the power of attorney are in violation of the Kansas power of attorney act may result in prosecution under the criminal laws of the state of Kansas.

(4) A power of attorney executed by a person who does not have capacity is invalid. In a criminal proceeding, the attorney in fact has the burden of proving by clear and convincing evidence that the principal had capacity. In a civil proceeding, if the party challenging the validity of the power of attorney on the grounds of lack of capacity proves by a preponderance of the evidence that, at the time the power of attorney was executed, the principal was an elder person, the attorney in fact has the burden of proving by a preponderance of the evidence that the principal had capacity.

4 (c) (1) A power of attorney does not have to be recorded to be valid 5 and binding between the principal and attorney in fact or between the 6 principal and third persons.

7 (2) A power of attorney may be recorded in the same manner as a 8 conveyance of land is recorded. A certified copy of a recorded power of 9 attorney may be admitted into evidence.

10 (3) If a power of attorney is recorded any revocation of that power of 11 attorney must be recorded in the same manner for the revocation to be 12 effective. If a power of attorney is not recorded it may be revoked by a 13 recorded revocation or in any other appropriate manner.

(4) If a power of attorney requires notice of revocation be given to named persons, those persons may continue to rely on the authority set forth in the power of attorney until such notice is received.

17 (d) A person who is appointed an attorney in fact under a durable 18 power of attorney has no duty to exercise the authority conferred in the 19 power of attorney, unless the attorney in fact has agreed expressly in 20 writing to act for the principal in such circumstances. An agreement to act 21 on behalf of the principal is enforceable against the attorney in fact as a 22 fiduciary without regard to whether there is any consideration to support a 23 contractual obligation to do so. Acting for the principal in one or more 24 transactions does not obligate an attorney in fact to act for the principal in 25 subsequent transactions.

26 (e) The grant of power or authority conferred by a power of attorney 27 in which any principal shall vest any power or authority in an attorney in 28 fact, if such writing expressly so provides, shall be effective only upon: (1) 29 A specified future date; (2) the occurrence of a specified future event; or 30 (3) the existence of a specified condition which may occur in the future. In 31 the absence of actual knowledge to the contrary, any person to whom such 32 writing is presented shall be entitled to rely on an affidavit, executed by 33 the attorney in fact, setting forth that such event has occurred or condition 34 exists.

(f) A person who in good faith contracts with, buys from or sells to an attorney in fact is protected as if the attorney in fact properly exercised such power, regardless of whether the authority of such person as the attorney in fact has been terminated or invalidated.

(a) An attorney in fact who-elects agrees to act under a power of attorney is under a duty to act in the interest of the principal and to avoid conflicts of interest that impair the ability of the attorney in fact so to act. A person who is appointed an attorney in fact under a power of

The attorney in fact shall keep a record of receipts, 6 disbursements and transactions made on behalf of the principal and shall 7 not comingle funds or assets of the principal with the funds or assets of the 8 attorney in fact. In the absence of explicit authorization, the attorney in 9 fact shall exercise a high degree of care in maintaining, without modification, any estate plan which the principal may have in place, 10 including, but not limited to, arrangements made by the principal for 11 12 disposition of assets at death through beneficiary designations, ownership 13 by joint tenancy or tenancy by the entirety, trust arrangements or by will or 14 codicil. Unless otherwise provided in the power of attorney or in a separate 15 agreement between the principal and attorney in fact, an attorney in fact 16 who-elects agrees to act shall exercise the authority granted in a power of 17 attorney with that degree of care that would be observed by a prudent 18 person dealing with the property and conducting the affairs of another, 19 except that all investments made on or after July 1, 2003, shall be in 20 accordance with the provisions of the Kansas uniform prudent investor act, 21 K.S.A. 58-24a01 et seq., and amendments thereto. If the attorney in fact 22 has special skills or was appointed attorney in fact on the basis of 23 representations of special skills or expertise, the attorney in fact has a duty 24 to use those skills in the principal's behalf.

30 (c) If, following execution of a durable power of attorney, a court of 31 the principal's domicile appoints a conservator, guardian of the estate or 32 other fiduciary charged with the management of all of the principal's 33 property or all of the principal's property except specified exclusions, the 34 attorney in fact is accountable to the fiduciary as well as to the principal. 35 The fiduciary has the same power to revoke or amend the durable power of 36 attorney that the principal would have had if the principal were not an 37 adult with an impairment in need of a guardian or conservator or both as 38 defined by subsection (a) of K.S.A. 59-3051, and amendments thereto.

(d) A principal may nominate by a power of attorney, a guardian or conservator, or both, for consideration by the court. If a petition to appoint a guardian or conservator, or both, is filed, the court shall make the appointment in accordance with the principal's most recent nomination in the power of attorney, so long as the individual nominated is a fit and 1 proper person.

2 (e) An attorney in fact shall exercise authority granted by the 3 principal in accordance with the instrument setting forth the power of 4 attorney, any modification made therein by the principal or the principal's 5 legal representative or a court, and the oral and written instructions of the 6 principal, or the written instructions of the principal's legal representative 7 or a court.

8 (f) An attorney in fact may be instructed in a power of attorney that 9 the authority granted shall not be exercised until, or shall terminate on, the 10 happening of a future event, condition or contingency, as determined in a 11 manner prescribed in the instrument.

12 (g) On the death of the principal, the attorney in fact shall follow the instructions of the court, if any, having jurisdiction over the estate of the 13 principal, or any part thereof, and shall communicate with and be 14 15 accountable to the principal's personal representative, or if none, the principal's successors. The attorney in fact shall promptly deliver to and 16 17 put in the possession and control of the principal's personal representative 18 or successors, any property of the principal and copies of any records of 19 the attorney in fact relating to transactions undertaken in the principal's 20 behalf that are deemed by the personal representative or the court to be 21 necessary or helpful in the administration of the decedent's estate.

(h) If an attorney in fact has a property or contract interest in the subject of the power of attorney or the authority of the attorney in fact is otherwise coupled with an interest in a person other than the principal, this section does not impose any duties on the attorney in fact that would conflict or be inconsistent with that interest.

(i) The attorney in fact shall maintain adequate records of receipts, disbursements and transactions made on behalf of the principal and shall not commingle funds or assets of the principal with funds or assets of the attorney in fact.

(j) (1) Failure to maintain adequate records is negligently failing to maintain such records as are necessary to disclose fully the nature of the receipts, disbursements and transactions made by the attorney in fact on behalf of the principal. Such records of receipts, disbursements and transactions shall be maintained by the attorney in fact for five years after the date on which such receipt, disbursement or transaction occurs.

An attorney in fact who fails to maintain adequate records, as defined in this subsection, may be liable for all costs, fees and expenses, including reasonable attorney fees, incurred in acquiring or reproducing such records of receipts, disbursements or transactions.

(3) If the attorney in fact is found to have commingled funds or assets of the principal with the funds or assets of the attorney in fact, the attorney in fact shall be liable to restore such funds or assets to the principal, and shall be liable for all costs of recovering those funds or assets, including reasonable attorney fees.

3 Sec. 4. K.S.A. 58-664 is hereby amended to read as follows: 58-664. 11 (b) Powers of attorney created and fully executed by the principal 12 prior to July 1, 2014, shall be governed by the laws in existence at the 13 time such powers of attorney were created and fully executed.

14 Sec. 5. K.S.A. 58-651 and 58-664 and K.S.A. 2013 Supp. 58-652 and 58-656 are hereby repealed.

16 Sec. 6. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its 17 publication in the statute book.
