

76-1902b. Same. Laws 1891, chapter 200, sections 1 and 2, included by reference. [This act accepted the act of congress approved August 27, 1888, entitled "An act to provide aid to state and territorial homes for the support of disabled soldiers and sailors of the United States," and designated the governor of the state as the officer to act for the state in the matter of the donation from the federal government.]

History: R.S. 1923, 76-1902, ¶ 3.