

Journal of the House

FIFTY-THIRD DAY

HALL OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
TOPEKA, KS, Thursday, April 2, 2015, 11:00 a.m.

The House met pursuant to adjournment with Speaker pro tem Mast in the chair.

The roll was called with 123 members present.

Rep. Edmonds was excused on verified illness.

Rep. Sloan was excused on excused absence by the Speaker.

Rep. Kleeb was excused later in the day on excused absence by the Speaker.

Prayer by guest chaplain, the Rev. Dan Rhoades, senior pastor, First Baptist Church, Louisburg, and guest of Rep. Vickrey:

Almighty God, As we gather here today we thank you for the privilege of living in this country and in the great state of Kansas. We thank you for the beauty of a Kansas sunset, the waving wheat fields, the rolling flint hills, and the vast prairies of western Kansas. We have some beautiful sites in this place we call home, but what really makes Kansas great is the people that live here.

We thank you for all the men and women who have dedicated themselves to serving our state. We thank you for those who serve others: our state representatives, senators, governor and lieutenant governor, our US Congress and Senate representatives, our police departments, sheriff departments, highway patrol; for those serving our great state in the Armed Services, our fire departments; our teachers and all involved in education; and the medical personnel who are there in some of our greatest times of need. Thank you for those who serve in positions that we forget to say thank you to... our workers who keep our roadways safe from the sign holder to the snow plow driver. Help us to be grateful for this great state that we call home and for all of our neighbors.

Today as decisions are being made for our state, we pray that you will grant wisdom to our leaders. We thank you for these, our leaders, who are representing the ordinary citizen. Help them to seek that which is best for our state. Be with all who are here today. Be the light in the darkness, strength when we are weak, and our hope in the midst of despair. May the burdens of each be lightened as they share their workload together. May they experience personal peace and joy from this work that they have been commissioned to perform.

Bless our leaders. I ask all of this in Jesus' Name. Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Ruiz.

On emergency motion of Rep. Finney, HR 6022, by Reps. Patton and Finney, as follows, was introduced and adopted:

HR 6022—A RESOLUTION designating the month of April as Parkinson's Disease Awareness Month.

A RESOLUTION designating the month of April as Parkinson's Disease Awareness Month.

WHEREAS, Parkinson's disease is the second most common neurodegenerative disease in the United States, second only to Alzheimer's disease; and

WHEREAS, It is estimated that the disease affects over 1,000,000 people in the United States, including thousands of Kansans; and

WHEREAS, Although research suggests the cause of Parkinson's disease is a combination of genetic and environmental factors, the exact cause and progression of the disease is still unknown; and

WHEREAS, There is no objective test for Parkinson's disease and the rate of misdiagnosis can be high; and

WHEREAS, Symptoms of Parkinson's disease vary from person to person and include tremor, slowness, difficulty with balance, swallowing, chewing and speaking, rigidity, cognitive problems, dementia, mood disorders, such as depression and anxiety, constipation, skin problems and sleep disruptions; and

WHEREAS, Medications mask some symptoms of Parkinson's disease for a limited amount of time each day, often with dose-limiting side effects; and

WHEREAS, Ultimately the medications and treatments lose their effectiveness, generally after four to eight years, leaving the person unable to move, speak or swallow; and

WHEREAS, There is no cure, therapy, or drug to slow or halt the progression of Parkinson's disease; and

WHEREAS, Increased education and research are needed to help find more effective treatments or a cure for Parkinson's disease; and

WHEREAS, The federal government, through the National Institute of Health, the Department of Defense Neurotoxin Exposure Treatment Parkinson's Research Program, the Veterans Affairs Parkinson's Disease Research, Education and Clinical Center, and other agencies, support vital work to better understand Parkinson's disease and to find new treatments; and

WHEREAS, In the fight against Parkinson's, Kansans can be proud. The University of Kansas Medical Center's Parkinson's Disease Center is designated as a National Parkinson's Foundation Center of Excellence. Support groups and organizations such as the National Parkinson's Foundation – Heartland in Leawood; patients, including Rob Peppers, the Honorable J. Basil Dannebohm, Lisa Reser and Barbara Sowards; and many advocates working to promote Parkinson's Disease awareness, education and patient support: Now, therefore,

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the State of Kansas: That we designate the month of April as Parkinson's Disease Awareness Month. We will continue to support research to find better treatments, and eventually, a cure for Parkinson's disease.

Be it further resolved: That the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives shall send five enrolled copies of this resolution to Representative Patton.

There being no objection, the following remarks of Reps. Patton and Finney are spread upon the Journal:

Remarks of Rep. Patton:

Parkinson's Disease Awareness Month was first proclaimed by the Kansas House in 2013. Celebrating its third consecutive year, it is my honor, along with Representative Finney, to sponsor this important resolution.

Each year, the resolution has been coordinated by J. Basil Dannebohm. In the summer of 2012, Dannebohm was diagnosed with Young Onset Parkinson's Disease. Since that time, he has been an advocate for Parkinson's disease research, treatment and awareness. In 2015, he briefly served in the Kansas House of Representatives, representing the 113th District, until such time as he resigned due to health complications. Former Representative Dannebohm joins us here today and I am happy to welcome him back to the Capitol.

Also joining us is Lisa Reser from Ellinwood, Kansas. Mrs. Reser is a fifth grade teacher suffering from Parkinson's disease. Though she faces the daily challenges of living with the disease, from the time she started her career as a child care provider to the present day as an educator, Lisa has been committed to the well-being of Kansas children for more than 25 years.

Our final guest is my mother-in-law, Bobbie Sowards, who suffers from Parkinson's disease. It is my sincere honor to have her attend today as we bring attention to this awful disease.

Remarks of Rep. Finney:

Parkinson's disease is a progressive neurological disorder that affects nearly one million people in the United States. In 2005, an estimated 5,500 Kansans suffered from Parkinson's Disease. By 2012, that number had increased to an estimated 9,000 Kansans. Although promising research is being conducted, there is currently no cure for or definitive cause of Parkinson's disease.

We are mindful of those who struggle and pledge our support and encouragement to them in their fight against this terrible disease. On behalf of Representative Patton and myself, I'd like to thank this legislative body for your support of Parkinson's Disease Awareness Month.

INTRODUCTION OF ORIGINAL MOTIONS AND HOUSE RESOLUTIONS

On emergency motion of Rep. Houston, HR 6023, by Reps. Houston and Finney, as follows, was introduced and adopted:

HR 6023—A RESOLUTION recognizing Storytime Village, Inc. for its work to give young Kansas children the opportunity for a better future through literacy.

A RESOLUTION recognizing Storytime Village, Inc. for its work to give young Kansas children the opportunity for a better future through literacy.

WHEREAS, Storytime Village, Inc. has worked since 2009 to help Kansas children from birth to age eight thrive through partnerships that provide early childhood development, family engagement around reading and access to books; and reading level, while 80% of Hispanic children and 83% of African-American fourth graders in Kansas scored below the "proficient" reading level. With the support of parents and the help of many dedicated volunteers, Storytime Village, Inc. inspires children, regardless of their socioeconomic background, race or gender to read by providing them with free books and literacy resources. Storytime Village, Inc. is currently the only nonprofit organization based in Kansas that focuses exclusively on children's literacy: Now, therefore,

WHEREAS, According to a 2013 study conducted by the National Kids Count Data Center, 56% of Caucasian fourth graders in Kansas scored below the "proficient"

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the State of Kansas: That we recognize Storytime Village, Inc. for its work to give young Kansas children the opportunity for a better future through literacy; and

Be it further resolved: That the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives shall send enrolled copies of this resolution to Prisca Barnes, Founder and CEO of Storytime Village, Inc., Representative Houston and Representative Finney.

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Houston are spread upon the Journal:

Today is Literacy Day at the Capitol and Rep. Finney and myself are here today with a two-fold purpose: One is to celebrate International Children's Book Day, which is an annual event held on April 2: which is also the birth date of Hans Christian Andersen, the famous author who wrote some classic fairytales such as the "Little Mermaid," "The Snow Queen," "The Ugly Duckling," "The Nightingale" and many more. The celebration is sponsored by the International Board on Books for Young People (IBBY) with the goal to "inspire a love of reading and to call attention to children's books."

I think we would all agree that books open new worlds of possibilities for children and taking the time and making the investment into our children's education, when they are young helps them to be more prepared for what the future will bring to them.

Also, we want to welcome Storytime Village, Inc., who with the support of parents and the community, are fostering a lifelong love of reading in underserved Kansas children from birth to age 8." Standing on the ancient African proverb "it takes a village to raise a child", they strive to give every child in Kansas, regardless of their socioeconomic background, race, and/or gender the opportunity for a better future through literacy. Since its inception in 2009, Storytime Village has been dedicated to helping the youngest in our communities thrive through partnerships that provide early childhood development, family engagement fostered through reading, and better access to books.

We would ask that you join me in congratulating Storytime Village, Inc. for their great efforts in reaching out to our communities and helping children through this great program.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

MR. SPEAKER: I vote NO on S Sub for HB 2258. In a time when childhood poverty and homelessness is on the rise in Kansas it is not prudent to restrict one of the only lifelines available to combat poverty. Kansans who are receiving assistance have fallen on hard times and are using these programs as a means to merely make ends meet. This legislation only makes it more difficult for Kansans to lift themselves out of poverty. I cannot in good conscience vote for this bill. — CAROLYN BRIDGES, BRODERICK HENDERSON, HAROLD LANE, JOHN ALCALA, GAIL FINNEY, VALDENIA WINN, RODERICK HOUSTON, JARROD OUSLEY, DENNIS “BOOG” HIGHBERGER, STAN FROWNFELTER, PAM CURTIS, ED TRIMMER, TOM BURROUGHS, LOUIS RUIZ, SYDNEY CARLIN, PONKA-WE VICTORS, JOHN WILSON

On motion of Rep. Houser to concur in Senate amendments to HB 2003, Rep. Alcalá offered a substitute motion to nonconcur in Senate amendments and that a conference committee be appointed. The substitute motion prevailed.

Speaker pro tem Mast thereupon appointed Reps. Huebert, Phillips and Alcalá as conferees on the part of the House.

On motion of Rep. Goico, the House nonconcurrred in Senate amendments to HB 2154 and asked for a conference.

Speaker pro tem Mast thereupon appointed Reps. Goico, Osterman and Lane as conferees on the part of the House.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

MR. SPEAKER: Everyone who works hard deserves the right to get ahead, which is why I am voting NO on SB 154. This legislation decreases the employer contributions to the Unemployment Insurance Trust Fund and simultaneously limits the maximum weekly unemployment insurance benefit available to a Kansas worker. In doing so, it prioritizes the interests of big business over the needs of middle class and working families. For these reasons, I am voting NO on this unfair and damaging piece of legislation. – CAROLYN BRIDGES, BRODERICK HENDERSON, HAROLD LANE, JOHN ALCALA, GAIL FINNEY, PAM CURTIS, ED TRIMMER, KATHY WOLFE MOORE, DENNIS “BOOG” HIGHBERGER
