

Journal of the Senate

ELEVENTH DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS
Tuesday, January 26, 2016, 2:30 p.m.

The Senate was called to order by President Susan Wagle.

The roll was called with 38 senators present.

Senators Holland and Pyle were excused.

President Wagle introduced guest chaplain Pastor Carl Frazier, Southwest Baptist Church, Topeka, who delivered the following invocation:

Dear God, we want to remember you and Your Holy Word today and everyday of our lives. Our hope is that people, especially leaders, remember and follow Proverbs 21:3 which states, "Do what is right and just; that is more pleasing to God than sacrifice." Help each of us to look out and see the multitudes who are hurting due to insufficient funding and opportunity in the areas of education, mental health, low wages, prisons and access to health care and jobs. Our prayer is that leaders will look around the room where business is taking place and it won't just be people looking like them, but help them to see the need for equal opportunity for all people. We pray that You Lord are calling on leaders to understand the things that continue to depress our state. Please bless all leaders in this world including their families, health, strength, bodies, minds and souls. We ask You to build them up where they are torn down and strengthen them where they are weak. This is my prayer in the mighty name of Jesus. Amen

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by President Wagle.

POINT OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Longbine rose on a Point of Personal Privilege to introduce Allison Garrett, new President of Emporia State University.

The senators honored President Garrett with a standing ovation.
