

2016 Kansas Statutes

3-115. Rights and duties of cities. All cities are hereby granted the same rights, privileges and immunities, and are charged with the same obligations, responsibilities and duties toward municipal airports and municipal fields for aviation purposes located outside of the limits of any city as now exist for any property now located within the limits of any city, including the right of eminent domain.

History: L. 1929, ch. 5, § 3; March 16.