

2016 Kansas Statutes

13-1057c. Same; expense paid by city. The building and construction of the storm water sewers or drains shall be at the expense of the entire municipality and shall be upon plans and specifications of the city engineer or engineer employed by the city and may be built by the city or let to the lowest responsible bidder as the governing body may deem best.

History: L. 1949, ch. 159, § 2; April 7.