

2016 Kansas Statutes

25-2322. Mandamus to compel registration. If the county election officer refuses to register any person who makes application therefor as provided in this act, such person may bring an action in mandamus to require such registration in the district court of the district in which the county election officer is located. The district judge may advance any such action for immediate hearing upon not less than forty-eight (48) hours notice to the county election officer.

History: L. 1968, ch. 55, § 22; L. 1976, ch. 145, § 150; Jan. 10, 1977.