

Journal of the House

THIRTIETH DAY

HALL OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
TOPEKA, KS, Monday, February 20, 2017, 11:00 a.m.

The House met pursuant to adjournment with Speaker pro tem Schwab in the chair.

The roll was called with 124 members present.

Rep. Murnan was excused on verified illness.

Prayer by guest chaplain, the Rev. Dr. Peter A. Luckey, pastor, Plymouth Congregational Church, Lawrence, and guest of Rep. Wilson:

O Holy God, as we assemble this morning to attend to the well-being of all Kansans, we are mindful of the important work before us. We know the actions we take or fail to take affect the lives of thousands, names we will never know.

Help us, O compassionate one, to see a face behind the faceless, to see a human being behind a statistic.

May you lead us to think of every Kansan, regardless of the color of their skin, their gender orientation, faith and economic background as kin to us, as if each citizen of our State were a member of our own family.

Remind us that the work of governing is always about people and their lives, and the land on which we live and share.

Make us mindful of the trust that the citizens have placed in us, so we may conduct ourselves in a way that is fitting and honors the high trust placed in us to do Your people's work.

This is an awesome and sacred task You have placed before us.

As much as we will try to read and learn as much as we can about every issue and bill that faces this body, we realize we can never fully be prepared. We cannot anticipate all the ramifications, the unintended consequences of our actions. We know we all have our blind spots; our prejudices and preconceived notions invariably influence our views, our outlook.

Therefore, we recognize this morning, at the beginning of our session, the need for Divine guidance. As King Solomon was said to be a wise King principally because he had the humility to admit he did not have all the answers, that he needed to turn to you, O God for wisdom and guidance.

May we all be humble enough as legislators this morning, to be able to admit what we don't know, what we have not yet understood, and that we all stand in the need of prayer.

Show us your Light, O God, that we may light the way for others.

Reveal to us now, your Path, that we can lead others on the journey.

Grant us a humble heart, so that we can truly listen as well as speak, that we try to understand more than worry about whether we are understood.

On this President's Day when we think of all the Presidents who have served this great land, we give thanks for the role we have been given to play, the leadership conferred upon us, the people of the great state of Kansas entrusted into our care.

It is a privilege and honor to serve here today. May Your Loving Spirit infuse all that we say and do here today. In God's name, we pray.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Cox.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

MR. SPEAKER: I believe HB 2121 would be an unappreciated change in the eyes of liberty-concerned constituents in Kansas because: HB 2121 is vague, and doesn't make clear that it is collecting the names and medical decisions of individual Kansans; HB 2121 makes no provision for a parent or patient to opt out of having private medical information reported. I believe required reporting and compilation of medical information is not the job of government and encroaches on patient privacy. Therefore, I vote no on HB 2121. – SUSAN HUMPHRIES, CHUCK WEBER, FRANCIS AWERKAMP, KEITH ESAU
