SIXTY-SIXTH DAY

HALL OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
TOPEKA, KS, Thursday, May 11, 2017, 10:00 a.m.

The House met pursuant to adjournment with Speaker pro tem Schwab in the chair.

The roll was called with 123 members present.

Reps. Ballard and Powell were excused on legislative business.

Present later: Rep. Powell.

Excused later: Rep. Proehl.

Prayer by guest chaplain, Jermaine Wilson, pastor, Faith Christian Center International, Leavenworth, and guest of Rep. Deere:

Dear heavenly father, we come before you with thankful and grateful hearts. For you are the creator of heaven and earth. It is he who made us and not we ourselves. Behold how good and how pleasant it is for brethren to dwell together in unity. By the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that ye all speak the same thing, and that there be no divisions among you; but that ye be perfectly joined together in the same mind and in the same judgement. No weapon formed against our country shall prosper; we are more than conquerors to him who loved us. Neither height nor depth nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God that is in Christ Jesus our Lord. Blessed is the nation whose God is the Lord; and the people whom he hath chosen for his own inheritance.

If my people, who are called by my name, will humble themselves and pray and seek my face and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear from heaven, and I will forgive their sin and will heal their land. Our country cries out; forgive us of our sins, create in us a clean heart O Lord and renew us with your righteous spirit. The book of the law shall not depart from our mouth, we shall meditate on it day and night, so that we may be careful to do according to all that is written in it. We must be strong and courageous, we must not be afraid, we will not be discouraged, for the Lord our God will be with us wherever we will go. Our Country will stand together in unity, hope, peace and justice for all mankind. In Jesus' Name Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Miller.

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the State of Kansas: That we commemorate the 100th anniversary of city management in Kansas, and we designate June 18, 2017, as 100th Anniversary of City Management in Kansas Day to show our admiration for professional city managers, city administrators, county managers and county administrators. We wish them continued success in the future; and

Be it further resolved: That the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives shall send ten enrolled copies of this resolution to Representative Phillips.

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Phillips are spread upon the Journal:

Today we are commemorating the 100th anniversary of city management in Kansas.

On February 17, 1917, Kansas Governor, Arthur Capper, signed a bill authorizing the city manager form of government for Kansas cities. Then on March 9, 1917, electors in Wichita and El Dorado voted to adopt the city manager form of government and hired their first city managers on June 18 and July 1, 1917, respectively.

The city or county manager form of government has been adopted by voters in 73 Kansas cities and 2 counties, which serves 24% of the Kansas municipal population.

In addition to the city manager form of government, cities in Kansas have an additional 97 cities and 20 counties with professional administrators who serve over 67% of the Kansas municipal population.

These managers and administrators enhance the quality of local government through professional management. Three universities in Kansas - the University of Kansas, Wichita State University and Kansas State University - offer programs to prepare graduate students to work as professional public administrators.

The House will commemorate the 100th anniversary of city management in Kansas, and designate June 18, 2017, as 100th Anniversary of City Management in Kansas Day to show our admiration for professional city managers, city administrators, county managers and county administrators.

Joining us today are Doug Bach, County Administrator, Unified Government of Wyandotte County; Ron Fehr, City Manager, Manhattan; Doug Gerber, Interim City Manager, Topeka; Roger Holter, City Administrator, Marion; Lou Leone, City Manager, Kiowa; Cherise Tieben, City Manager, Dodge City; Michael Webb, City Manager, Edwardsville; Trey Cocking, City Manager, Atchison; Nickie Lee, Finance Director, Topeka; Reginald Robinson, Director, KU School of Public Affairs; Ray Hummert, Academic Advisor/External Affairs Director, KU School of Public Affairs; and John Nalbandian, Professor Emeritus, KU School of Public Affairs.

On motion of Rep. Hineman, the House recessed until 2:00 p.m.
