

Consumer Protection Act, Active Duty Military; SB 201

SB 201 amends the Kansas Consumer Protection Act (Act) by adding members of the military to the definition of “protected consumer” in the Act. With the addition, the Act applies to elder persons, persons with disabilities, veterans, surviving spouses of veterans, members of the military, and immediate family members of members of the military.