

Journal of the Senate

SEVENTH DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS
 Wednesday, January 23, 2019, 2:30 p.m.

The Senate was called to order by President Susan Wagle.
 The roll was called with 39 senators present.
 Senator Pilcher-Cook was excused.
 Invocation by Reverend Cecil T. Washington:

Father God, many are the desires and expectations placed upon us. And they come at us from many sources; from family, friends, associates and even strangers. Sometimes stressed, with the weight of it all, we struggle with which direction to take; to whom do we listen? We realize that we must answer to others, but much more so, we're accountable to You.

So, help us to follow the wisdom You gave Solomon, the son of King David. In Proverbs 3:1-5, we find that the wisdom handed down from You is to be remembered and held close to the heart, because the insights coming from Your teachings bring quality and quantity of life. In verse 3, it says we're not to abandon the Godly qualities of mercy and truthfulness toward others.

And the results that You promise, and we can claim are favor and success in Your eyes, along with favor and success in the eyes of the people.

So Lord, help us to trust You...to acknowledge and recognize You in all our ways, knowing that you are faithful and that You will direct our paths. In the Name of the Christ, I come to your throne of grace. Amen and Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by President Susan Wagle.
