

2020 Kansas Statutes

8-1,130b. Reissuance, suspension or revocation of accessible parking privileges; rules and regulations. (a) The secretary of revenue shall revoke, in accordance with rules and regulations adopted pursuant to subsection (c), any accessible parking identification device of any person who is convicted under the provisions of K.S.A. 8-1,130, and amendments thereto.

(b) The secretary of revenue shall suspend or revoke, in accordance with rules and regulations adopted pursuant to subsection (c), an accessible parking identification device, when the person, agency or business to which an accessible parking identification device is issued, authorizes the use of such device or the use of a vehicle displaying such device to a person not authorized by law to use such device and such unauthorized person is convicted under subsection (b) of K.S.A. 8-1,130a, and amendments thereto.

(c) The secretary of revenue shall adopt rules and regulations prescribing procedures for the reissuance, suspension and revocation of accessible parking privileges including the issuance or orders to return accessible parking identification devices, notification of law enforcement agencies and personnel with regard to the validity or invalidity of any accessible parking identification devices and revocation of accessible parking identification devices.
