

2020 Kansas Statutes

13-1228h. Same; appeal to court of appeals. The state court of appeals shall have jurisdiction of appeals from decisions of the district court made pursuant to this section. Appellate proceedings shall have precedence in the court of appeals. Notwithstanding the provisions of K.S.A. 60-2101, the state supreme court shall not have appellate jurisdiction of decisions of the district court or state court of appeals rendered pursuant to this section. Except as provided by this section, the procedure upon appeal shall be the same as in other civil actions.

History: L. 1982, ch. 85, § 8; July 1.