

2020 Kansas Statutes

46-128. Deposition; power of judge to prevent abuse of privileges. Any deposition taken during the time mentioned and referred to in K.S.A. 46-125, without leave of court shall not be read in evidence on behalf of the party taking the same without the consent of any such attorney: Provided, That the judge shall have full discretionary power to prevent any abuse of the privileges herein granted.

History: L. 1915, ch. 86, § 4; Jan. 28; R.S. 1923, 46-128.