

2020 Kansas Statutes

50-6a21. Controlling law; severability. If a court of competent jurisdiction finds that the provisions of K.S.A. 50-6a01 through 50-6a03, and amendments thereto, conflict with and cannot be reconciled with any other provisions of this act, then such provisions of K.S.A. 50-6a01 through 50-6a03, and amendments thereto, shall control. If any provision of this act causes K.S.A. 50-6a01 through 50-6a03, and amendments thereto, to no longer constitute a qualifying or model statute as those terms are defined in the master settlement agreement, then that portion of this act shall not be valid. If any provision of this act is for any reason held to be invalid, unlawful or unconstitutional, such decision shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions of this act or any part thereof.
